The next item in the report concerned the electronic elections software. Ms. Stafford reported that she has tested the poll function and confirmed it does work. However, the process of distribution and collection of results needs to be improved before the Assembly can use it for our April elections.

Ms. Stafford also announced that, besides the faculty who will speak under the Online Classes Discussion Item, Dean Primozić will address concerns about these classes in his report.

Ms. Stafford is also working with Carmen Wellborn to update the Faculty Assembly webpage, and the changes voted on to the constitution

Discussion then moved on to strategies to implement a new class schedule. One faculty member asked which tactics were being employed of those the Scheduling Committee had come up with. The Dean said that class cap increases are a

Dr. Malm went on to explain that UNM-Gallup is not designed to alleviate student problems with transportation or housing; we also do not have the funds to do so. We need to be excellent at our teaching, as is our mission.

One more question was asked, about the timing of the HLC visit in March, and then Dr. Malm finished his report. Ms. Stafford turned the floor over to Mr. Robert Griego, CFO for UNM-Gallup.
